

Notice

Vedabi LLC and its affiliated companies are committed to protecting your privacy. You should understand what we do with any personal information that you provide to us. That's why we've created this Privacy Policy, which discloses our information gathering and dissemination practices.

Overview

In general, using our website (vedabi.com) as a site visitor may be considered anonymous: we do not engage in any activity that will personally identify our site visitors.

We may use your IP address to help diagnose problems with our server, to administer our website and to refine our site based on which features people use most often. Your IP address is also used to help identify you and to gather broad demographic information.

If you are a customer or supplier of ours, we will also use your personal information for the purposes of providing the services or information you or your organization have requested, contacting you about other services or events that may be of interest to you and for other legitimate business purposes, as permitted by applicable laws.

Any personal information that we have collected or stored about you or that you have provided to us, may be transferred to a future purchaser of our company and/or its assets.

The data collected via our site is stored in a secure server with our ISP who will take periodic backups of such data but will not give or sell it to anyone else.

Registration

Using vedabi.com does not require registration of any kind other than voluntary registration for white papers, investor kits, and registration to conferences and registration for our email club. The personal data collected for these purposes will not be sold to anyone outside Vedabi and will be used by Vedabi for one-on-one contact with the registrants.

Cookies

Vedabi may collect certain information by automated means, such as cookies and web beacons, when a user visits our website. A "cookie" is a small piece of data that a website can send to your browser, which may then be stored on your system.

We sometimes collect anonymous information from visits to our website to help us provide better customer service. This anonymous information is sometimes known as "click stream data". We may use this data to analyze trends and statistics and to help us provide you with a better customer service.

Data transfers

We may need to transfer your personal information to countries other than the ones in which your personal information was originally collected. Those countries may not have the same level of protection of personal information as the country in which your data was initially collected. Where Vedabi must transfer personal information to such countries, it will take appropriate steps to apply the same level of protection to the data being transferred as is described in this Policy, in accordance with applicable local law.

Changes to this Privacy Policy

Vedabi reserves the right to modify or update our Privacy Policy at any time without notice, so we encourage you to review this policy from time to time.

Contact

If you have any queries, questions or concerns about this Privacy Policy or our privacy practices or wish to request a copy of the personal information we hold about you, please contact our us: info@vedabi.com.
